Jinan Vocational College

◆ Overview of the Institute

With a history of 70 years, Jinan Vocational College is a public comprehensive higher vocational college affiliated to Jinan municipal government. It is also one of the best vocational colleges among more than 70 vocational colleges in Shandong Province.

Located in Jinan, capital of Shandong Province, the college covers an area of about 213.33 acres. There are two campuses, of which Caishi campus is located in the eastern new district, adjacent to the high-tech industrial development zone. Shungeng campus is located in the downtown area of Jinan, surrounded by many universities, with a superior location and convenient transportation. International Exchange School(IES), Jinan Vocational College is located downtown, at the foot of Qianfo Mountain, next to the Botany Garden, surrounded by several universities. Due to a series of international projects, IES has developed strong links with municipal government agencies and officials overseas. With abundant teaching resources including international teachers from Australia, Canada, America and Britain, and 13,000 full-time students from 10 countries, we focus on building up a pleasant multicultural environment in which each teacher and student feel cared for and respected. IES promises you a happy life, prosperous study, extensive friendship network and helps you find the key to a bright future.

Jinan is the political, cultural and educational center of Shandong Province, located in the most developed economic belt in eastern China, bordering South Korea and Japan. Famous for the picturesque views and a long history, Jinan is prosperous, habitable with low living cost and abundant multicultural resources.
